This exhaustive manual is an indispensable guide for advocates who help veterans and their families obtain benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs. User-friendly, well-indexed, and packed with practical information, it includes sample forms and briefs, flowcharts, checklists, citations to legal authorities, and other documents designed to streamline the claims process and save you and your veteran client valuable time. Written by practicing lawyers at the National Veterans Legal Services Program, this manual contains valuable insight and analysis from a team of experts on the front line of veterans law. Use their first-hand experience fighting for veterans' rights and their insider's view of the Department of Veterans Affairs to obtain the benefits your client earned. The Veterans Benefits Manual contains dozens of effective, battle-tested advocacy tips for veterans and advocates along with all the latest developments in veterans law. 2021-2022 Edition Editors: National Veterans Legal Services Program (NVLSP) Barton F. Stichman, Executive Director and co-founder of the National Veterans Legal Services Program Ronald B. Abrams, Special Counsel and Former Joint Executive Director of the National Veterans Legal Services Program Richard V. Spataro, Director of Training and Publications of the National Veterans Legal Services Program Stacy A. Tromble, Director of Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims Litigation of the National Veterans Legal Services Program The 2021-2022 edition of the Veterans Benefits Manual has been thoroughly updated with the important developments in veterans' law over the past year. The most significant new information in the recent edition of the Manual has been about the Veterans Appeals Improvement and Modernization Act of 2017 (AMA), which took effect on February 19, 2019. There is updated information in the 2021-2022 edition of the Manual about how the new modernized review system has been operating in practice. Most of that information appears in Chapters 12, 13, and 16. Highlights of the other updates include advocacy essentials such as: New advice for deciding which options to pursue to overcome BVA decisions denying legacy claims and claims subject to the new AMA system (Sections 14.1.1 and 14.1.2); Discussion of the recent changes to VA policies and procedures due to the COVID-19 pandemic (throughout Manual); A new section about how the BVA conducts virtual hearings (Section 13.4.3); New sections explaining why thousands of Vietnam veterans and their survivors are now entitled to millions of dollars in additional retroactive compensation for Agent Orange-related diseases (Sections 8.10, 8.11); Discussion of the VA's revisions to the disability rating schedule for musculoskeletal conditions (Section 5.2.9); A new section discussing the enhanced hearing procedures adopted by the Army Discharge Review Board and the thousands of Army veterans now entitled to have the Board reconsider their less than Honorable Discharges under more liberal review standards (Section 21.3.5); A new section about how military retirees become entitled to retroactive military retired pay as a direct result of a VA decision granting retroactive VA benefits (Section 8.12); Updated analysis of the rules governing entitlement to retroactive benefits based on service department records being added to the VA claims file after a final claim denial (Section 8.8.9); New guidance regarding entitlement to accrued benefits to reimburse individuals who bore the expense of a veteran's last illness or burial
