"We could do some counting," said Monkey, "and find out." "And how could we do that?" asked Crocodile. "Well," said Monkey, "you could go up and down the river and tell all the crocodiles to come here. Then I could do the counting." "After that, you could get all the monkeys to come," said Crocodile, and he grinned.

Crayons aren't just for coloring anymore! This colorful rhyme teaches counting by twos-two different ways. First, use the even numbers to count up to 24. Then start over with the odd numbers. Along the way you'll learn unusual colors, like iguana and fiddlehead. Do any of them sound familiar? They should! They come from the pages of Jerry Pallotta's alphabet books. Counting has never been more fun or colorful!

Juana Medina's ingenious illustrations nearly pop off the page in her new counting book, ONE BIG SALAD. One avocado deer saunters across the spread, two radish mice scurry by, until finally ten clementine kitties prance onto the scene - all of the ingredients in one big salad! Medina's previous book with Viking, SMICK!, introduced her to the children's book world, and now she's bringing her fresh and innovative take on the concept book form.
