From Rags to Riches is the true story of two strangers who find each other in midlife and turn rags into riches and make their Christian marriage and businesses a success. Joseph and Annette Trawick were both born in small, rural areas, Wilkinson and Hancock Counties in Georgia, approximately sixteen miles apart--only separated by pine trees, dirt, and gravel roads. Both had previous marriages and have adult children. Although they felt it was love at first sight, there were many obstacles in their path that undermined what God had set as their destiny. There were many struggles, from starting their business to maintaining their marriage and maintaining the bond between their adult children. Throughout this book, they will take you on a journey of good and ugly. Believing in the faith of God and each other, they discovered that being rich is not all about money but about love, family, health, and happiness.

"Born in 1948, in Abu Dhabi, the author knew dreadful poverty for years before fabulous oil wealth transformed his country forever. He grew up in the ruler's palace, barefoot like his playmates, now senior figures in the United Arab Emirates." "This is a vivid eye-witness account of the total transformation within only 30 years of a Bedouin society into a country with the world's highest per capita income. He speaks with great frankness about his own life and career and about the role of the British in his country."--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. Living this "football life" has afforded me extraordinary opportunities, exposure to life's options and blessings untold. That life filled my personal "playbook" with the wisdom to call an audible, pass, run or, go for the two-point conversion as I lived each day. Yes, I observed the "thrill of victory and the agony of defeat" from the stands and sidelines. Most importantly, I'd beheld strength, courage and purpose. And, those qualities molded me into the person I am today. I got off the bench after merely existing and got into the game of living.

Hello, I was born Julianne Branch in Chicago, Illinois on October 14, 1952. I graduated from Eastern Illinois University with a Bachelor of Science Degree, and I immediately started teaching full time as a Social Studies teacher. I married my husband Reginald Lindsey and I have two sons, Paul and Reginald II. I also have 1 beautiful granddaughter, Kyla Skye Lindsey. I later earned my Masters of Education Degree from National Louis University in Illinois. I continued to teach until June 6, 2012. I am now a retired teacher of 38 years. I have always aspired to write a book about my passion of financial planning to help others to organize their finances. As second job I became employed and trained as a Financial Planner and a state certified Insurance Agent. I worked for a major Financial Service Company. Now that I am retired I can devote my time to my own Financial Service Company.

It says in the Bible that we are to give 10% of our gross income to God which is the tithe. We are to take our tithe to our local church. Many make out their tithe without really giving it much thought, which is the way it should be. Whereas, many others put too much thought into tithing which only complicates the act of tithing. God made tithing to be very simple and uncomplicated. In Riches to Rags to Riches: The Power of Tithing, author Heidi Guttman tells her story of tithing. Life for Guttman was good. She had material things that would make many people envious: a beautiful townhouse, expensive art, awesome cars, gorgeous furs, expensive jewelry, and a sport yacht, among other things. There was even a leather high chair for the baby. When she lost most of her possessions because she disobeyed Gods instructions about tithing, however, Guttman learned the power of material wealth to distance her from God. Riches to Rags to Riches: The Power of Tithing teaches the importance of tithing from Gods perspective. Learn about the rewards you can reap from tithing and the losses you can sustain from not tithing. Guttman learned the difference firsthand. When she began tithing faithfully, God restored her in all ways. This can happen to you. As a result of tithing, you can experience Gods love, peace, and abundance a blessing that so many people long for.
