most marriages: lack of money--or lack of communication? At what age do children copy adult attitudes and beliefs? Are friends and co-workers entitled to a different standard of courtesy than mate or children? Should children be forced to do household chores? At what age should the facts of life be taught? Your score may very well indicate the Happiness Quotient of your spouse and children! No Is The Time To Love contains the answers, and many more, to help you attain deep, lasting fulfillment in your home--and in your life. It is a book telling what real love is and what it will do--sharing help in a positive Christian way.

Is your jam-packed schedule getting in the way of romancing your partner? Romance doesn't ever have to take a backseat to work, kids, chores, or any of the other constant demands of your multi-tasking life. The most important person in your world deserves to feel loved, cherished, and appreciated, right now and always. And you deserve the same! It doesn't require a lot of time, money, or energy to make each other feel special every day. Editha Rodriguez brings you the romantic wisdom of busy couples just like you--living their own happily-ever-after romances. They reveal their secret to keeping intimately attuned to what makes each other joyful and committed to creating an environment of trust, devotion, and respect. This down-to-earth couple's guide shows you how to freshen up and strengthen your relationship by minimizing distractions and finding new ways to demonstrate love, including: Using a "turn-on" list when your partner's romantic mood is "off" Making your bedroom a sanctuary Appreciating the importance of "away" time Letting the kids plan some of your date nights Creating a Romance Box As long as you have the desire and intention to make your relationship a priority, everyday romance--whether you're together two years, twenty years, or fifty years--is
