This book is a collection of blogs and reviews published on the net on various popular websites. These essays function more like opinion essays dissecting the very nature of being, becoming, withdrawal and the attainment of perfection. The movie and book reviews don't touch upon the technicalities of movie-making, but they deal with an idea, thought, feeling or conflict the book or movie may have evoked in me. The book is divided into 2 parts. In the first part I have compiled my collected blogs, and in the second half, you get to read reviews of books and movies that I have watched and read. This non-fiction book tries to mock at tradition, and is subversive in its attempt to educate. I hope to prod the discreet reader and provoke strong reactions and emotions for all the touchy issues that I have written about.

"This book is an examination of the inattention of business schools to moral education, addressing lessons learned from the most recent business corruption scandals and financial crises, and also questioning what we're teaching now and what should be considering in educating future business leaders to cope with the challenges of leading with integrity in the global environment"--Provided by publisher.

While many business schools are teaching Global Operations Strategy with self-made teaching materials, there are no such textbooks. Combining practical approaches with detailed theoretical underpinnings, this book provides theories, tools, frameworks, and techniques for global operations strategy, and brings real world perspectives to students and managers. Each chapter includes definition of key terms, introduction of fundamental theories, several short case examples, one long new case to explain the associated theories, and recommended further reading.
