"THE BACKUP PLAN is classic new adult at its finest. With plenty of angst, drama and emotion, I seriously loved this romance!" ~ NYT bestselling author Monica Murphy I'm beyond help... I threw a football before I could walk. Everything in my life revolved around football-and I loved every second. I was a star. Until, suddenly...I wasn't. Now everyone thinks I'm the monster who killed his best friend. I'm an outcast on campus, silent and alone. Then Taylor Selmer walks back into my life. When will she learn-I'm beyond saving. I need to save him... Chase and I used to be friends. But after the accident, nothing was the same. We used to have something special-until we didn't. But he doesn't smile anymore. Doesn't talk. Doesn't play. It hurts me to see him this way, and I will do everything I can to get him back in the game. Whether he likes it or not.

The Year is 2034 - on a post-apocalyptic Earth. A group of New World residents led by James Cook are traversing the frozen lands in search of his father. But staying one step ahead of a diabolical army - the Vengers - led by a megalomaniac who is hell bent on ruling the New World is only one of the group's concerns. The other is beating nature at her own game. Will friends turn into enemies when the temperature drops? Who will you trust when you are ICE BOUND?

Revisit the bestselling Charleston Trilogy by #1 New York Times bestselling author Sherryl Woods in this classic tale of falling in love when you least expect it. It's finally time for Dinah Davis to go home. The world-weary correspondent wants to settle down with the sweet guy she left behind in South Carolina's Low Country. Instead, she's confronted by his black-sheep brother, and—despite her longing for serenity—sparks fly. How can she possibly trade her perfectly safe backup plan for a risk-taking guy like Cordell Beaufort after all the dangers she's already faced? But to Dinah's dismay—backup plan or not—her heart has its own ideas. Originally published in 2005.

In August 2002, Mike Horn set out on a mission that bordered on the impossible: to travel 12,000 miles around the globe at the Arctic Circle - alone, against all prevailing winds and currents, and without motorized transportation. Conquering the Impossible is the gripping account of Horn's grueling 27-month expedition by sail and by foot through extreme Arctic conditions that nearly cost him his life on numerous occasions. Enduring temperatures that ranged to as low as -95 degrees Fahrenheit, Horn battled hazards including shifting and unstable ice that gave way and plunged him into frigid waters, encounters with polar bears so close that he felt their breath on his face, severe frostbite in his fingers, and a fire that destroyed all of his equipment and nearly burned him alive. Complementing the sheer adrenaline of Horn's narrative are the isolated but touching human encounters the adventurer has with the hardy individuals who inhabit one of the remotest corners of the earth. From an Inuit who teaches him how to build an igloo to an elderly Russian left behind when the Soviets evacuated his remote Arctic town, Horn finds camaraderie, kindness, and assistance to help him survive the most unforgiving conditions. This awe-inspiring account is a page-turner and an Arctic survival tale in one. Most of all, it's a testament to one man's unrelenting desire to push the boundaries of human endurance.

See, here's the thing. My friends think my new soccer practice partner, Graham Fordham, is a complete hottie. I guess he is, but he and I have this understanding. We're friends because we both think dating is an annoying pain in the butt. Don't get me wrong. I love my bff's, but they've both lost their minds a little since boys came on the scene. All I want to focus on is making varsity soccer as a freshman. Crazy hard, but I know I can do it with Graham's help (yes, he's an amazing athlete, and no, I have not noticed the muscles in his legs when we're practicing.

Seriously. I haven't. Because that would be a complete disaster and ruin everything in my entire life, and no, I'm not exaggerating). But when late night practices, pizza disasters, accidental dates, and ice cream food fights change all the rules between us, suddenly everything that matters to me is about to go into a major crash and burn.

Author Megon Phillips Aesch was a thirty-four-year-old, career-oriented horticulturist with a good business and a great husband. They had dreams, goals, and focus. They had a plan, and then disaster struck, hit with a blow beyond imagination. Megon suffered a stroke caused by an arteriovenous malformation (AVM). It transformed her from a strong-willed, independent business woman to a patient in a wheelchair requiring a great deal of assistance. In I Tied My Shoes Today, Megon shares her story in conjunction with her husband, Jim, who kept a journal while she was incapacitated and recovering from the stroke. It tells how she and her family faced the challenges of a traumatic injury to her brainthe setbacks, the triumphs, and the life-and-death decisions that were encountered for almost two years. A story about love, growth, disaster, and renewal, I Tied My Shoes Today narrates the gamut of emotions and events in Megons pursuit to return to her former self. It also tells about the symptoms and causes of stroke and describes the practices and the policies the medical profession follows.
